Oliver, P. E. Daugherty, J. H.
Branam, Phil. A. Hafner.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
I hereby announce my candidacy for re-election to the office of county superintendent of schools of Scott county, Annual school meetings, Tuesday, April 6.
CHARLES D. HARRIS.

I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for the office of school superintendent of Scott county at the annual school meetings, Tuesday, April 6.
M. ELMER MONTGOMERY.

AMONG THE SUBS.
The wind has shifted. For the past three and a half years the Kicker has had very rough sledding and the income barely met expenses. The unscrupulous and lawless opposition by the enemy, with its lawless inquisition, framed up libel suits and lying press, had created such mountains of prejudice that they were hard to climb.

But the worm is turning. The eyes of the people are opening. A month ago the directors of the Kicker met and decided to increase the circulation. The result has been an addition of 181 new readers for the month while, at the time of writing this, March 23, the renewals exceed those of the entire month last year by three. And we have yet a week to play on!

And the men who are doing this tell me they lose almost no time that the people are anxious and grab for the Kicker. This reminds me of what Lincoln said that "you can fool all of the people part of the time and part of the people all of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time."

In this work J. A. Daugherty of Commerce leads. In fact, he is "out of sight" with 77. Next come J. H. Branam of Vanduser, and P. E. Daugherty of Ance-ll with 31 each. Chas. Oliver of Hooe, sent in 18; W. J. Kindred of McMullin, 22, and a few others got in with one and two each.
Say, boys, can't you push a little and make it 200 New ones for the month? All are invited to help.

August Deck of Bell City sends in $2 for himself and August Schlitt.

Sam Spradlin of Fornefelt writes:
"I love to read the Kicker because it tells the truth."

Uncle Ben Curd of Morley sends for extra copies containing the report of the libel "sue" and writes, "If you haven't passed through the fires of hell here on earth, I don't know who has.
But I hope the tables have turned to remain the balance of your days."

R. J. Cate of Bloomfield renews with, "I can't afford to be without the Kicker."

V. T. Rowland, the Morley "medicine man" writes, "Please don't let me miss a single copy but renew my subscription at once."

Put poor Jim Smith is up against it. Two years ago he sold his farm near Redman and moved to Arkansas. And he finds the same conditions there as here.
In answer to a notice that his subscription had expired, he writes, "I am a man of money just now. I had rather do without flour than the Kicker. I am already doing that, but it don't help much. If you will send the Kicker I will pay for it as soon as I get a dollar. I have some money coming to me here, but ALL ARE HARD UP."

C. S. Sharley of Morley has the same complaint as Mr. Smith and writes, "don't see how me and my family are going to get along without the Kicker."

Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Sharley will receive the Kicker until they recover from the "good times" the Democrats promised them—and are now enjoying.

BEATS ANY SHELL GAME.
Burke and Hobbs, the "evangelists," closed their performance at Jackson Sunday night claiming over 500 "converts." Of course they did the people good—and plenty. The "evangelists" have the money, their victims have what they believe to be "religion," and everybody is happy.

But these cross-roads "evangelists" that hit Southeast Missouri are small fry when compared with such artists as Billy Sunday.
Billy goes after the "long green" with a shovel. He has just closed a "revival" in Philadelphia at which the press dispatches say he cleaned up $51,000.

I do not claim to be a bible student, but the little I know about the life of Christ has never impressed me with the idea that he was always passing the contribution box. Nor did he live off the fat of the land while the masses were ragged and hungry.

Somebody ought to get busy in trying to Christianize the so-called Christian religion.

Before breeding your mare it will pay you to call and see Governor Blacklock, and Klondike, owned by T. A. Wylie one mile south of Chaffee. Governor is 7 years old, weighs 1200 pounds, his size and style of coat can't be beat for all purposes in Southeast Mo.
Klondike will be 5 years old this fall, is 15 1-2 hands high, weighs 900 pounds. Numbers that have looked at him say he is the only perfect jack they have ever seen in every respect. Each one will stand for $12.50 to insure colts to stand up and suck. Season opened March 15, 1915. Adv.

PREACHER LOSES JOB
Boston, March 20.—The unemployed of Boston should walk the streets unclothed in order to call public attention to their needs.
The Rev. Wm. Short told a meeting of the unemployed at Parkman Memorial Band stand on the Common this afternoon.

Short was removed this week by Bishop Lawrence from the rector-ship of the Episcopal churches in Mansfield and North Dighton, after he had preached a series of sermons on "The Social Revolution."

"I have seen nearly 1,000 men sleeping on the floors and benches in Boston municipal lodging houses," he said. "The mayor and governor do not realize the situation. The public is doing nothing to remedy it. Some drastic measure is necessary."

"Some morning when you come out of one of these unventilated 'wayfarers' lodges,' take those dirty, filthy clothes from your backs and walk down the street.
Your suffering justifies the action.
Many people will be shocked.
Some will think it better for you to die in some lonely alley. But if there are any Christians there they will remember the words: 'I was naked and ye clothed me not.'"

MUZZLING A SOCIALIST.
London, March 22.—The Exchange Telegram Company has received a dispatch from Copenhagen saying that Dr. Liebnicht has been ordered to place himself at the disposal of the German military authorities, according to the Politika of that city. Henceforth he must consider himself under military law. He is not to write articles nor will he be permitted to attend political meetings, except in the Reichstag and Landtag.

HERE AND YONDER.
In a collision with a buggy last week an automobile driven by John Boardman turned a summer sault about three miles this side of Sikeston. Mr. Boardman was painfully injured and suffered a dislocated hip. August Elbert of Illmo was here Friday and said he came out of Sikeston shortly after the accident, and that while the automobile was going from Sikeston when the collision occurred, it had turned over and was headed toward Sikeston. The buggy was wrecked, the horse injured and the driver considerably bruised up. A later report says the horse died. Both the auto and buggy were coming this way when the auto crashed into the buggy.

In these items last week the Kicker said that Mr. Hill, the departed deputy highway engineer, was one of those very nice gentlemen who do not allow the Kicker in their homes. I wrote item and put it aside as improper, but in the rush of press day it got into the paper. Mr. Hill did not take the Kicker, and it was his privilege not to. Besides he was a subordinate, and to take the paper might have put him in bad with his boss. I do not know how it is now, but under Warner it was perilous for anyone in the highway department to patronize the Kicker.

Henry C. Ahrens, aged 77, of Gordonville, while delirious Friday night, left his bed and disappeared. When found he was in an unconscious condition lying in a fence corner about 100 yards from the house. He was wet from falling in a creek on the premises and almost frozen. He was taken to the house and revived. Henry C. is the grandfather of Julius Ahrens of Oran, of the firm of Ahrens & Hoffkorn.
Albert Martin, a Canadian subscriber, writes that the general belief that the people of Canada are impressed into the war is wrong; that only volunteers go to the front in the cause of England. He says the farmers are needed at home to produce food for those on the firing line, and that the largest crops ever known will be planted in the spring.

The patriots are as silent about the decision of the Appellate court in the Kicker libel "sue" as they were about the open letter to John McWilliams exposing conditions in the public service in this county four years ago. Not a line about that decision has appeared in the court house organ.
A defense of the outrage is impossible. Hence the silence.

After spending all of the money and nearly doubling the salaries of Supreme and Appellate court judges, and creating many new and useless jobs to take care of the unemployed members of "the party," but without doing a d-d thing for the masses, the Missouri legislature quit Saturday.

County court met Tuesday to pass on the sanity of John Jordan and Mrs. Ella Hamilton, both of Sikeston. Jordan, colored, was "sentenced" to Fulton and Mrs.
Hamilton to Farmington.

Fred Paul and Albert Wylie of the Rootwad neighborhood were
were ragged and hungry.

of last week.

smith, has moved his family there.

FROM ANCELL
Some of the Democratic bosses look like 80 cents since the Kicker won that libel "sue."

Democrats who believe in right rather than might are taking a different view of political and official transactions since the Kicker won out in their own courts.

Read the Kicker, boys, and get it straight. It will put you "next" to all their tricks.

Peter Weiler is the champion corn salesman of our community.
Friday he delivered 49 1-2 bushels to Theon Heisserer at Oran and received $1.75 per bushel for it. It was seed corn of the St.
Charles variety. Needing a new wagon, Mr. Weiler took one as part pay.

Dr. Hutton was called here last week to patch up a negro who was badly bruised up in getting off a fast moving freight train.
The negro was later taken to the poor farm. He said he had no family, no relatives and no home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Greer, Mrs.
Nancy L. Greer, Mrs. Octa Greer and Grover Newell visited the family of P. E. Daugherty Sunday.
Geo. Thomas, Louis Dumey and Wm. C. Arnold were in Benton last week in the interest of our school proposition.

Mrs. A. L. Walter. Mother and child doing well and Al is recovering.

J. Enderle's Saturday night and and Louis, the Sals Creek batch-ers, spent a few hours at the Chas. Fullenwider of Cape Girardeau, was down Saturday to get some goods that he had left.

Earlie Ellis came down from Cape to look after things on his father's farm last Thursday.

The farmers were busy sowing oats this week and it was very bad weather for such work.

Albin Martin took two loads of hogs to Cape Saturday for which he got 6 1-4 cents on foot.

A. T. Enderle worked a few days at John Siegel's of Sals Creek, last week.

vation, remainder in cut-over timber. One-room house. One and a half miles southwest of Perkins. Price, $30 per acre. J.

C. Rhine, Perkins, Mo. 7-4t.

OBEYS DRY LAW.
Grafton, W. Va., March 20.— Ed Strange took no chances of being arrested for violating the Prohibition law when he arrived here.

As he walked through the streets Strange wore on his hat a placard printed in large letters, which read:

"I contain two pints of pure rye whiskey and six bottles of beer." An amendment to the law recently enacted makes it a misdemeanor not to label in large letters containers of alcoholic liquors.

FROM FORNEFELT
Another big reduction in the railroad forces here—prosperity for the workers in chunks!
Twenty-three rip-track men and several round-house and other laborers had their pay stopped Monday and have adopted the "watch ful waiting" policy of the national administration.

The foundation is being put down for a new brick saloon along across the street from Schriefer's store. It is said the Cape brewery is putting up the building for Albert Loose. The poor laborers need some place to forget their troubles, or drown them.

Still the war rages in Europe and what is it all about even the fighters do not know. If they did they would lay down their arms and let the master class finish the bloody game—if it must be finished.

It is reported that Geo. Rode-meyer is circulating a petition for a saloon where the Hamm-Williams saloon was.

J. R. House and Emil Ledure will leave with their families Thursday for their new homes in Colorado.

Fornefelt is now a city of the fourth class. The proposition to make it so carried almost unanimously.

Miss Ruth Clark will leave Thursday to visit in St. Louis and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. ball team was defeated by Thebes Saturday night.

Mrs. Homer Moore and son. Refreshments were served and all

and style of coat can't be beat for all purposes in Southeast Mo.

to stand up and suck. Season
opened March 15, 1915. Adv.

RESOLUTIONS.
Whereas a large part of the so-called civilized world is now engaged in the most gigantic struggle ever known to mankind, a conflict that is directly or indirectly affecting the lives and interests of every man, woman and child in the whole world; and Whereas Complications are daily arising which are seriously endangering the peaceful relations of our own country, and threaten to bring to our own doors the horrors of modern warfare; and Whereas, Believing that the united efforts of our great fraternities would have a far reaching influence in promoting peace and preventing the spread of human strife; Therefore be it

Resolved, By Commerce Lodge No. 548 I. O. O. F. of the State of Missouri, composed of 30 representative men, that we sincerely regret these deplorable conditions and hereby pledge ourselves to use every means in our power to support, uphold and encourage every honorable effort that is or may be made, not only to preserve our own neutrality, but to end this bloody carnage. Be it further

Resolved that we impress upon the members of Congress, the President and his Cabinet, and all others in authority, the necessity of "sitting steady in the boat" and not allow questionable points of honor, nor the desire of those who seek personal gain only, to influence them in their intercourse with the warring nations, and be it further

Resolved, That we publish our position to the world, so that all may know that Friendship, Love and Truth are not mere unmeaning words upon our lips, but the sincere desire of our hearts.

Adopted, this 13th day of March, 1915.
PETER KUEHNER, N. G.
FRED L. MILLS, Secy.

The Misses Ruth Reynolds, Vir-gie Anderson and Mrs. P. B. Held and Chas. Blackledge were at the Cape and Benton last week in the interest of the Red Hustlers, and the Misses Vera Tinkle, Georgia Hutton and Lura Daily were at Fayville working for the Blue Rustlers. The contest is reaching alarming proportions, and anyone with coin had better keep shy of these lady church workers.

Miss Beaulie Bondurant of Saint Louis, formerly of Commerce, received a silver medal in a W. C. T.
U. contest in that city. As this her third medal, we are proud of her achievements.

W. G. Anderson was hurt Friday by a mule pawing him in the face breaking his nose and loosening his front teeth. Wade must learn to reason wld a mewe!

Several from Blodgett were in our town Saturday trading mules.
Wm. Bradley, M. S. Powell, Jesse Chappell, John Schneider, Dick Burke and son John.

Mrs. Sol O'Guin returned from the hospital, where she has been for three weeks recovering from an operation.

News reached here Monday of the death of Dr. Bright at Evansville, Ind. He was a resident of Commerce for about 18 years.

Henry Cook of this place made a mistake while sawing wood on Monday and sawed one of his fingers off.

Miss Estella Bondurant won the medal in the Junior League for having the longest verse in the bible.

Don't forget the Old Maid's Convention, Monday, 29th, and Ball Game, Wednesday, 31st.

Miss Pat Maupin of St. Louis is a visitor here.

The tilling plant started up again Monday.

FROM MULLINS ISLAND
It is reported that the people of Morley are alarmed over the appearance of so many tramps and robberies are feared. Frank Kirk patrick, of the bank, is said to be scared. He fears that they will rob the bank or steal his girl and is thinking of putting a lock on both.

Among the guests at the birthday party at Vance Bomers Sunday were the Misses Lora Evans, Virginia Halley, Mozelle Howle,
